Experience in Tax Litigation that Counts!

Thorn Law Group is the “Go To” boutique tax litigation firm for civil and criminal matters.

As former IRS tax attorneys, the lawyers at Thorn Law Group (TLG) set the bar high when representing clients before the IRS and the Department of Justice (DOJ) in civil and criminal tax matters. “We advocate for our clients’ rights, save them substantial taxes, and protect them from potential incarceration and overall government abuse,” says Kevin E. Thorn, managing partner of TLG. “That’s why we’re the ‘go-to’ U.S. boutique tax law firm for representing CEOs, businesses, executives, high-ranking government officials, and high net worth individuals in tax matters before the United States courts, DOJ, and IRS. We defend our clients, their families, and their businesses with strategic, carefully planned defenses.”

When a client hires TLG, they hire “a team of focused, highly-skilled, and trusted tax attorneys that are considered the best in the tax litigation and planning business nationwide,” Mr. Thorn states. “When a client first comes to my firm, they’re under a tremendous amount of stress and anxiety while staring down the power of the U.S. government. It’s my job to provide them with a plan to ease their mind.”

LEVELING THE PLAYING FIELD AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

Mr. Thorn and his team deliver the goods. Having worked “behind enemy lines” at the IRS and U.S. Tax Court, they learned firsthand the government’s tactics and strategies that now help them advise their clients. “I tell every client, ‘Let me worry about the government. Your job is to worry about your family and business.’”

Former government experience is just one of many things that separates Mr. Thorn and TLG from competitors. Due to his expertise and success, Mr. Thorn can level the playing field for clients. TLG’s strategic thinking, hard work, and victories inside and outside the courtroom have built a positive reputation within business circles. As a result, clients come from across the country and around the globe to hire TLG when dealing with complex tax situations.

TAX LITIGATION AND PLANNING

“When an individual or a business is approached by the IRS or DOJ, the agent may claim the taxpayer owes millions without any real understanding of the law or facts behind the taxpayer’s position. This puts the client in need of an experienced tax attorney to protect their interests. I have been practicing tax law for over 25 years, and I have never seen an IRS agent or a DOJ attorney make a mistake in my clients’ favor.” At TLG, however, the emphasis is always on protecting and advancing the client’s interests.

TLG handles the most complex tax litigation cases, and has been referred to as the “platinum standard” of tax law firms. The firm’s service-oriented approach to protecting clients extends to every corner of U.S. tax law, from criminal tax cases to business tax audits, FATCA and foreign bank account reporting, IRS voluntary disclosures, PPP and ERC fraud investigations, IRS conservation easement litigation, IRS cryptocurrency tax audits, and IRS captive insurance investigations, to name a few.
